Section 3 - Residency Information

Please read this notice before responding to the questions in this section:
Washington State law makes certain students, those who are not permanent residents or citizens of the United States, eligible for resident student status when they attend public colleges in the state. Resident students pay resident tuition rates and are eligible for a variety of other educational benefits. These students are not eligible to receive need-based federal financial aid. To qualify for resident status, students must meet one of the following conditions:

Condition One:
- Resided in Washington State for three (3) years immediately prior to receiving a high school diploma, and
- Completed the full senior year at a Washington high school, and
- Continuously resided in the state since earning the high school diploma.

Condition Two:
- Completed the equivalent of a high school diploma, and
- Resided in Washington State for the three (3) years immediately before receiving the equivalent of the diploma, and
- Continuously resided in the State since earning the equivalent of a high school diploma.

If you meet one of these conditions and would like to pay resident tuition rates, you will need to print the affidavit from the link below, complete it, and mail it to the college or colleges you are applying to attend.
