COURSE SUMMARY FOR THE MISSION OF JESUS CHRIST

The purpose of this course is to help students understand all that God has done for us through his Son, Jesus Christ. Through this course of study, students will learn that for all eternity, God has planned for us to share eternal happiness with him, which is accomplished through the redemption Christ won for us. Students will learn that they share in this redemption only in and through Jesus Christ. They will also be introduced to what it means to be a disciple of Christ and what life as a disciple entails.

The students will:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of our origins in creation, humanity's fall from grace, and the promise of a Redeemer, Jesus Christ.
2. Demonstrate a thorough Catholic understanding of the Paschal Mystery.
3. Analyze how Jesus' life and ministry contributed to our redemption.
4. Explore the rationale for Jesus' sacrifice on the Cross.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of Christ's resurrection and its implications for us.
6. Explore the implications of Christ's Ascension and the sending of the Holy Spirit.
7. Explore the moral responsibilities of the believer in light of our redemption.
8. Evaluate various forms of prayer in fostering a relationship with God.

COURSE SUMMARY FOR SACRAMENTS:

The purpose of this course is to help students understand that they can encounter Christ today in a full and real way in and through the sacraments, and especially through the Eucharist. Students will examine each of the sacraments in detail so as to learn how they may encounter Christ throughout life.

The students will:

1. Explore the sacramental nature of the Church as encounters with Jesus Christ.
2. Consider the history, theology, and Scripture supporting each sacrament.
3. Learn the graces, effects, and importance of each sacrament.
4. Compare the matter, form, and essential elements of each sacrament.
5. Examine the disposition and intention toward reception of the sacraments, including requirements for receiving each sacrament.
6. Look at how the sacraments are lived in the Christian life.

COURSE SUMMARY FOR JESUS CHRIST'S MISSION CONTINUES IN THE CHURCH (ECCLESIOLOGY):

The purpose of this course is to help the students understand that in and through the Church they encounter the living Jesus Christ. They will be introduced to the fact that the Church was founded by Christ through the Apostles and is sustained by him through the Holy Spirit. The students will come to know that the Church is the living Body of Christ today. This Body has both divine and human elements. In this course, students will learn not so much about the events in the life of the Church but about the sacred nature of the Church.

COURSE SUMMARY RESPONDING TO THE CALL OF JESUS CHRIST (VOCATIONS):

The purpose of this course is to help students to understand the vocations of life: how Christ calls us to live. In this course, students should learn how all vocations are similar and how they differ. The course should be structured around married life, single life, priestly life, and consecrated life. Students should learn what it means to live life for the benefit of others and the value in considering a vocation in service to the Christian community.

The students will:

1. Be able to describe the vocation of humanity as defined by the Church.
2. Study and understand the Catholic Church's teaching on human sexuality.
3. Understand the Protection of Children curriculum as set forth through the archdiocese.
4. Understand the four traditional vocations endorsed by the Church, and be able to fully describe the nature of each. These vocations are:

- Matrimony	- Priesthood
- Single Life	- Religious Life

COURSE SUMMARY FOR LIFE IN JESUS CHRIST (MORAL THEOLOGY):

The purpose of this course is to help students understand that it is only through Christ that they can fully live out God's plans for their lives. Students are to learn the moral concepts and precepts that govern the lives of Christ's disciples.

Students will:

1. Identify God's plan for us and how we respond through a moral life in Christ.
2. Explore the Decalogue and Beatitudes as God's revelation regarding Christian morality in broad and specific applications to living the Christian life.
3. Become familiar with and utilize basic moral terminology and concepts such as grace, sin, virtue, vice, freedom, and conscience.
4. Seek to apply their moral knowledge and discernment accurately and in conformity with Magisterial doctrine to contemporary moral/ethical issues.

COURSE SUMMARY FOR APOLOGETICS:

The purpose of this course is to serve as a capstone to students' theological faith formation and prepare them to live, explain, and (when necessary) defend Christian and Catholic core theological principles as adults in American society. The course begins with basic religious truths and progresses to detailed concepts of Catholicism and Christianity as a whole. Each unit builds upon previous truths and provides the evidence and rationale for Christian and Catholic doctrines and practices.

Main Topics of Study Include:

1. Relationship between Catholicism and science.
2. Evidence for God's existence, primarily philosophical and scientific.
3. Evidence for the reliability and accurate transmission of the Bible, especially the New Testament, primarily supported by archaeology.
4. The way Jesus and his revelation make Christianity unique among the world religions and their founders.
5. Evidence for the resurrection of Jesus, which serves to enhance the credibility of Jesus and his message, primarily using historical and psychological evidence.
6. A treatment of the Church and its purpose in the world as flowing from Jesus and continuing his mission.

7. Comparing and contrasting Catholic Christianity with other Christian churches and ecclesial communities.
8. Concluding with practice defending elements of Christianity or Catholicism.
