

Free audio books! If your child has been determined to have dyslexia, or has been screened and is at risk for dyslexia, they now have access to the Talking Book Program maintained by the Texas State Library and Archives Commission. The Talking Book Program provides students with reading disabilities the ability to borrow audiobooks free of charge, and includes over 100,000 titles, hundreds of which are in Spanish.

Click here to get started!! <https://www.tsl.texas.gov/tbp/gstarted.html>