

ENERGY CONSERVATION

The district is committed to reducing energy consumption in the Topeka Public Schools and to the inclusion, when appropriate, of information concerning the efficient use of energy and alternative sources of energy in district curricula and instruction in all subject areas at all grade levels.