

CLASS-SIZE/CASELOAD FOR SPECIAL EDUCATION CLASSES

The number of students assigned to each special education instructional classroom shall be determined by the age of the students, the nature and severity of their exceptional characteristics and the degree of intervention necessary. The superintendent shall review annually class-size/caseload limits for students with exceptionalities.