Cigler Family Scholarship

Cigler family members have dedicated their professional lives to education. Allan J. Cigler was a Professor of Political Science at The University of Kansas for 44 years. Beth E. Cigler was an elementary teacher for 32 years and is currently an adjunct instructor in the Curriculum and Teaching and Mathematics Departments at The University of Kansas; she also supervises student teachers. Their daughter, Kirsten Cigler Nelson, was a teacher at Topeka High School for more than 20 years and taught a variety of English courses including Honors English and Advanced Placement English Composition. She is currently a lecturer in the department of education at Washburn University and consults for a literature non-profit. This renewable scholarship seeks to reward students who have shown academic promise, particularly in areas of primary interest to the Cigler's, language arts and social studies.

The Cigler Family Scholarship application deadline is February 13, 2023, at 5:00 pm. The scholarship award for the first year is $3,000. Students who receive the $3,000 scholarship may apply for an additional $1,000 for three subsequent years with the possibility of a total of $6,000.
