

Channing and Dina Cox

College Prep Academy of Topeka Scholarship

(Leyla Solis Scholarship – Topeka High School Class of 2014)

Introduction

This scholarship is available to Topeka High School students who want to continue their education and who exemplify the qualities of the College Prep Academy of Topeka. The Academy was started in 2006 by Channing and Dina Cox to help students from modest circumstances who had the ability and drive to succeed in an institution of higher education. Leyla Solis graduated from Topeka High in 2014 and when on to graduate from Indiana Wesleyan University in 2018. She is now “giving back” to current Topeka High students by providing support for this scholarship.
